

Health and Beauty Services

When your business depends on billable hours for profits, every unfilled slot represents revenue which will never be replaced.

If you are not at 100% capacity twelve months of the year and you can handle new customers then Ormita can help you fill your idle time and offset your existing cash costs.

If your business has unsold appointment time then Ormita can bring you additional customers to keep your calendar full and employees busy.

Our loyal customer base will help contribute directly to your bottom line by creating repeat business, providing you with additional word-of-mouth advertising and increasing your overall profitability.

Creating cost savings

Your business probably fixed purchases that it makes on a regular basis.

Business supplies, uniforms, cleaning products, repairs and maintenance, equipment leases, pet food, promotions, professional services, advertising, tea and coffee and more.

Added to this are costs for unplanned capital purchases, family needs, holidays, client give-aways, donations, investments, alterations and expansions.

Ormita helps replace these expenses with income earned from new sales that we bring you.

By trading for thousands of dollars of purchases every month you will be able to keep more cash in the bank.

Here is how it works

1. Your business registers to provide its services via Ormita.
2. When you sell you receive credits based on the dollar value of the goods and services you provide.
3. You also receive part of the sale price in cash (to cover materials, our fees and sales-tax/GST/VAT).
4. You now have credit to purchase products from other members within the Ormita network.

Using Ormita - the overhead costs of creating additional business is covered and you earn credits which you can use to offset those regular expenses that just won't go away – no matter how much you want them to.

We even work with you on a budget so you know what costs can be offset immediately and how much in new sales Ormita will bring.
